Debbie Reynolds

Debbie Reynolds was born Mary Frances Reynolds in El Paso, Texas in 1932. She began her film career at MGM after winning a beauty contest at age 16. She is best known for her leading role in "Singin' in the Rain" (1952) with Gene Kelly.

Reynolds' first husband was singer Eddie Fisher, with whom she had a son, and later with her producer husband, Carroll O'Connor. The marriage ended in divorce, where Fisher left Reynolds for her former "Swingin' Star" husband, Elizabeth Taylor. Reynolds' second and third marriages also ended in divorce.

Reynolds received an honorary award of Hollywood star on her 50th birthday, which she dedicated to her research in Las Vegas.

Reynolds also authored several books and a memoir. As a result, she has received many awards, including the Golden Age of Hollywood, awarded by Martin Scorsese's "Tribute" to the film and her 84 birthday in 2017.
